

Dr Anna Budzanowska

Since the beginning of her professional career, she has worked in public institutions at the government level. She gained professional experience in the field of higher education system as Director General of the Ministry of Science and Higher Education in 2016-2019 and then as Deputy Minister of the Ministry of Science and Higher Education in 2019-2021 during which she was responsible for the strategy of implementation of structural reform in cooperation with higher education institutions, student and doctoral organization in the framework of National Congress of Science 2016-2020. Co-author of the model of doctoral schools and the Research University - Excellence Initiative.

Champion of ESOF 2024 - EuroScience Open Forum and Plenipotentiary for European Science City Katowice 2024. Research profiles: political doctrines and philosophy of law, public policies, and political systems. In the public policymaking: the deliberative processes, governance in higher education and science, of academic institutions, university systems, with reference to the European University Initiative (EUI), university councils and academic freedom. Winner of the Pro Juvenes award of the Parliament of Students of the Republic of Poland in the category - friend of student self-government. Scholarship holder of the French government.