

Ewa Gajewska-Nowara

Cooperation Leader European City of Science Katowice 2024 and Senior Specialist in Office of Mayor's Proxy Strategic Events at Katowice City Hall, co-founder and former coordinator of the Participatory Budgeting Project (PBP), where she was responsible for strategic development and management of PBP's operations and communications, including support for local PB processes and broader efforts to build powerful messaging that enables PB to grow.

Ewa has experience in developing, researching and working with community engagement programs as well as in organizing strategic events in Katowice. She holds a Master's degree in Political Science and Journalism from the University of Silesia in Katowice and a BA in Czech Philology from the University of Wrocław.